

"PROMOTING THE CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY TO AMERICA'S YOUTH"

APPLICANT INTRODUCTION FORM 2008

- For high school graduates and others, 18 years of age and over (by June 1, 2008, interested in a full-time or a summer job in the construction industry).
- This completed form can serve as an introduction to companies interested in interviewing the applicant. It does not replace any employer required additional paperwork, high school transcript or a company application if requested by the employer.
- This form is not a contract for employment. Completion and presentation of this form to a company does not guarantee employment, an interview or that the individual will be considered for employment. Individual companies will make those decisions based on their own criteria. All participating companies have pledged that all qualified applicants will receive consideration without discrimination because of sex, marital status, race, color, age, national origin, military reserve membership, religion or disability
